

INVITATION TO THE

WORKSHOP:

“WRITING AND PUBLISHING ABOUT AFRICA: CHALLENGES AND STRATEGIES”

organized by

Stichproben – Vienna Journal of African Studies

Friday, 27th of May, 2016

14:00 - Welcome & Introduction: Why Should We Talk about Writing and 15:30 Publishing about Africa?

Miša Krenčeyová (University of Vienna, workshop organization)

Race, Racism and the Challenges of Publishing in African/Ethnic Studies: Personal Reflections

Tunde Adeleke (Iowa State University)

Why Does African Philosophy Concern Us?

Franz Martin Wimmer (Wiener Gesellschaft für interkulturelle Philosophie, Vienna)

15:45 - Joint Research, Collaborative Writing, Collective Authorship:
16:45 Ethical Claims and Methodological Challenges

Katrin Bromber (Zentrum Moderner Orient, Berlin)

Film as a Research Medium in African Studies

Birgit Englert (University of Vienna)

17:15 - Panel Discussion:

18:45 “Publishing in African Studies: Challenges & Strategies”

with Katrin Bromber and Tunde Adeleke
(Editorial Advisory Board of the ‘Stichproben’)

Tomi Adeaga and Kirsten Rüther
(Editorial Board of the ‘Stichproben’)

Moderation: Birgit Englert (Editorial Board of the ‘Stichproben’)

LOCATION:

DEPARTMENT OF AFRICAN STUDIES, SEMINAR ROOM 1, 1ST FLOOR

UNI-CAMPUS AAKH, SPITALGASSE 2, HOF/YARD 5.1, A-1090 VIENNA

Stichproben – Vienna Journal of African Studies, <http://stichproben.univie.ac.at>